To Whom It May Concern,

Once again thank you for the box of goodies! My company relocated to Ramadi, Iraq, and I live in a small hut with 6 other females. Once I received the package they all grabbed what they wanted and they loved it all too! I wanted to be sure to write you and let you know that we really appreciate all you do for the soldiers. It does not go unnoticed, ever! I'll let you in on some of the things we do these days here. Part of my company is helping teach the iraqi police and the other part is helping a prison near by fixing it up and helping the improvement of it all. There is a place to go hang out with people, play volleyball, basketball and lots of places to shop at. There is a coffee place and even a subway. The living conditions are really good compared to what they could be. My girls and I usually hang out after work and play guitar here and watch movies. I'm very proud to be a soldier fighting for our freedom. Thank you for all you do!

God Bless you all!
